Our Policy

The allocation of subsidies is based on the number of requests, and funds available, and is allocated on a first come, first serve basis. PARO does not guarantee a subsidy to compensate for 100% of child/elder care expenses incurred. It is the responsibility of the applicant to provide the balance of funds for child/elder care expenses that extend beyond the subsidy amount. It is the responsibility of the applicant to arrange for, and take full responsibility for the child/elder care provided, including payment to the child/elder care provider.
